

Butler National Golf Course

PROJECT OVERVIEW

Project:
Butler National Golf Course
Oak Brook, IL

Client:
George Fazio

Contract:
Construction Management

Harbour Contractors, Inc. helped course designer, George Fazio, and his son, Tom, oversee the construction of what is now listed as the 21st best golf course in Golf Digest's America's Top 100 Golf Courses.

This project was coordinated through Harbour Construction's founder, I.C. "Red" Harbour, who was instrumental in the development of the Oak Brook area. Harbour also oversaw construction of the clubhouse which played host to the Western Open in only its second year of existence.
